DETAILED ACTION

Specification

- 1) Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

- 2) The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

- 3) Claims are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beck et al (WO 01/17834).

IN re claim 1, Beck teaches a vehicle air supply system having a compressor (12), an air dryer (14), a reservoir (18) adapted to receive air from the compressor via the air dryer and control means (20) operable to cause standard regeneration of the air dryer when a predetermined system condition is met (abstract), the control means also being operable to cause an intermediate regeneration of the air dryer in advance of the predetermined system condition being met, wherein the control means are further operable to inhibit said intermediate regeneration. Please note that the control means (20) can allow or prevent the regeneration depending on whether the valves are open or closed.

In re claims 2 and 6, see line (40) and the abstract.

In re claim 3, see page 8 lines 9-15.

In re claims 4-5, see page 2 lines 20-22.

In re claims 7-9 see page 2 lines 26-35 and element 24.

In re claims 10-11, please note that there must be some means to block the signal so as to inhibit an intermediate regeneration or there would always be intermediate regeneration in progress.

Allowable Subject Matter

4) Claim 12 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5) The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Beck is the US equivalent to the WO reference.
